Dear Eric:

We hope this letter somehow expresses the great satisfaction and gratitude we have for your work on turning our house into the home we always dreamed of. We love it! Your professionalism, dedication, diligence and patience, as well as that of your team and subcontractors, are amazing. These traits never wavered from the planning stage to completion of the project.

Many of our friends, family, and neighbors commented on the superior quality of work your company does during and after the project. We are proud to tell them we have none of those contractor horror stories everyone talks about. We also appreciate all the assistance and support we received while living in the basement! All of you went out of your way to prepare us for the next stages of construction and to accommodate us as we hibernated downstairs this winter.

Please feel free to furnish our name and number to your prospective clients at any time. We are always willing to tell anyone what a wonderful experience working with Thorson Restoration & Construction is!

Sincerely,

Wally and Mary Varonko
